

Elizabeth Fulbright Becomes a Bride

Senator and Mrs. J. William Fulbright of Fayetteville, Ark., and this city announce the marriage of their daughter Elizabeth Williams to Mr. John Lowrie Winnacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph A. Winnacker of Chevy Chase, Md.

The wedding took place at noon yesterday in St. Margaret's Episcopal Church. A reception at the Chevy Chase Club followed.

The matron of honor was Mrs. William B. Selby of Chevy Chase, Md., Miss Roberta Fulbright was her sister's maid of honor. The other attendants were Miss Anne Chalfant of Sewickley, Pa.; Mrs. Richard Lull of Philadelphia; Mrs. Neil Swinton, jr., and Miss Lynne Sykes, both of New York.

Lt. William P. Haynes was the best man. Ushers were Lt. Steven Bullock, USN of Williamstown, Mass., Lt. Franklin Dengel, USAF, Mr. James Cromwell, Mr. Stephen Smethurst, Mr. Leonard Steuart II, Mr. Thomas Owen, Mr. Brantley Vitek of Baltimore and Mr. Paul Winnacker, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride was graduated from Garrison Forest School and Bryn Mawr College. She

—Hessler Photo

MRS. WINNACKER

made her debut at a tea at home in June of 1954 and at the Washington Debutante Ball the following Christmas.

Mr. Winnacker was graduated from St. Albans School and Williams College. He is presently a medical student at the University of Maryland.

The couple will live in Baltimore next winter.